BEST OF TEXAS BOOKS AWARDED Largest Collection of Winners in Annual Contest

Austin, TX - Readers of the delightful titles selected for Texas Association of Authors (TxAuthors) Best Book Awards would agree that the selected books are winning reads and top-tier selections in their categories. By any measure, excellent books from this year's list are of stellar quality. They are delivering to readers, who love to fall into the pages, the experience of climbing out with the greatest satisfaction. The newest slate of winners is:

This is the fourth year for TxAuthors to select winning titles by Texas Authors. TxAuthors is currently accepting entries for books published during 2015. A sample chapter from each book can be found along with the previous year's winners at TxAuthors.com.

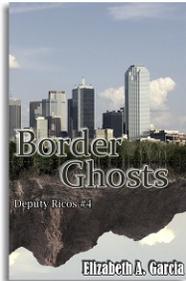

The winners from this year's contest will be presented at the State Capitol on April 11th. As part of the DEAR Texas event on April 12th, they will be in an Austin book store doing a reading and book signing of all of their books. For a complete list of book stores that will be participating, please visit DearTexas.info.

Texas Association of Authors focuses on promoting authors within the Lone Star State. The association leverages the knowledge and expertise of various authors to promote their works locally and globally.
